HALLOWTIDE

The period of time from the evening of October 31 to November 2 is sometimes call "Hallowtide" or "The All Saints Triduum." They are three days when we remember the departed in a particular way.

ALL HALLOWS' EVE October 31	ALL SAINTS' DAY November 1	ALL SOULS' DAY November 2
Historically, the day before All Saints' was kept as a vigil in preparation for the celebration of the Feast. Today our culture generally keeps it with merriment, goodies, and children dressing up in costumes ranging from the ridiculous to the terrifying.	This day commemorates the saints who are enjoying the presence of God, both those whose names we know (e.g. Mary, Francis, Patrick) as well as those who passed away and their names and deeds remain unknown to us.	All Souls' Day is a day on which we remember "those we love, but see no longer," and pray that God would "let light perpetual shine upon them." (BCP, 504) It is traditional to have a "Requiem Mass" or "Eucharist of Remembrance" on this day.
Vigil Eucharist, 5:30 PM	Spoken Eucharist, 8:00 AM Solemn Choral Eucharist, 10:30 AM (note: Incense at the 10:30 liturgy)	Solemn Requiem Mass, 6:00 pm in Trevor Chapel (note: Incense at the 6:00 liturgy)
