MOVIE NIGHT RETURNS

Trinity's monthly "Movie Nights" are returning, albeit in a slightly different format. These will be an opportunity to view and discuss theology as it intersects with popular movies. Films selected will not all be family-friendly per se. Nothing egregious but not all will be rated G. We won't be sticking to "churchy" films, but will have a mix of productions that will lead us to discussing the Christian implications of the ideas and stories presented. Our first film will be the 1996 film The Bird Cage, starring Robin Williams and Nathan Lane and directed by Mike Nichols (Rated R). Our first new movie night will be held on Tuesday, June 23 at 6:00 PM.

TRINITY'S CALENDAR AND SCHEDULING

We are blessed as a parish to have many ministries and activities going on throughout the week and each month. In addition, our ministry of hospitality is to welcome external organizations to use our space when not otherwise needed by the parish. This is a reminder that if your ministry or committee is planning to have a meeting or to use space in the parish, please contact the parish office before you schedule the meeting, to make sure that there is not a conflict with another ministry or gathering. Julie Rathbone, parish administrator, keeps the master calendar. Thank you!

CALL FOR GRADUATES TO RECOGNIZE

We will recognize our graduating seniors (high school, college, and graduate level) next month. Please call the office by June 22 with their names, where they are graduating from, and what their future plans are. We will acknowledge them on June 28 and also in the Trinity Times

A NOTE FROM FR. GEOFF

You will have noticed that this month there are flower arrangements on the steps of the chancel on the way up to the choir which are decorated with pride flags. The Episcopal Church, and our own parish in particular, are committed to Christian hospitality and the full inclusion of all the faithful in the life of the Church regardless of gender or sexuality. This does not mean that everyone in our parish is in the same place in their walk with Jesus or that we must agree on every issue facing the church and the world today. Rather, our Baptismal Covenant calls us to “seek and serve Christ in all persons,” to “strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being” (BCP 305). As followers of Jesus and members of his Body, we are called to “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5.21). The key to walking together in difference is humble willingness to remain in fellowship in the spirit of Christ even when controversial issues arise. We keep our eyes on Jesus. When we come to Church, we know that we are all equal before the Lord: equal in our need for God's mercy, Christ's healing, and growth in the Holy Spirit. We are also equally beloved children of our heavenly Father who seeks the joy and flourishing of all of us. The Lord both calls and empowers us to love radically, welcome joyfully, and serve each other humbly. Throughout it all, one's conscience is sacred. The Church is here to help form the Christian's conscience, not to bind, replace, or injure it. Thank you for being part of this community in which we are growing together in the grace of God. Let's continue to walk together as we celebrate the life we share in the Lord who unites us.

Your brother,
Fr. Geoff
