ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ON HIATUS FOR JULY

Our adult religious education class on the history of Christianity will be on break for the month of July. It will resume on Wednesday, August 5th.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Attention graduating seniors and current higher education students attending West Virginia institutions. Applications are now open for the Fred Davis, Jr. Scholarship. Fred. L. Davis, Jr. was a respected Parkersburg attorney who was actively involved in his church and multiple community positions before his untimely passing in 1990. His loving wife, Sally R. Davis, passed in 2024. His three adult children Debbie (Davis) Wright, John R. Davis, and Fred "Rick" L. Davis, III share in his legacy both in their community involvement and through the administration of this scholarship. The Fred. L. Davis, Jr., Scholarship is perpetual and intended to be awarded annually to a recipient or recipients who exhibit good character, scholarly aptitude, Christian faith, and a community-oriented mindset as well as who are attending a West Virginia institution of higher education. In addition to other requirements, applicants are asked to write an essay addressing their spiritual commitment, financial need, past scholastic achievements, general character, and leadership skills. For full application information, please contact Ginger Smith in the office at gingersmith.goodshepherdwva@gmail.com. Completed applications, along with two reference letters, are due July 31.
